- 12.4. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the date appointed for the payment thereof, the Person from whom the sum called is still due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate, not exceeding the maximum rate allowed by law, as the Directors may from time to time determine. The Directors may however be at liberty to waive, whether in whole or in part, the payment of such interest.
- 12.5. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
- 12.6. The Directors may not, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
- 12.7. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the monies so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such annual rate not exceeding the maximum rate allowed by law, as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Members paying such sum in advance.
- 12.8. The entitlement to receive any dividend and/or the right to exercise any privilege as a Member including the right to vote at general meetings, shall be suspended until the said Member shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share held by him, together with interests and expense, if any.

In no case may a part of a share constitute the object of a transfer.
- 13.3. The registration of transfers of unlisted shares may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, PROVIDED always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty (30) days in any one calendar year.
- 13.4. In the case of the death of a Member, his shares shall devolve upon his successors by will or by operation of law as the case may be, but nothing herein contained shall release the Person or Persons to whom the shares shall devolve, whether sole or joint, from any liability in respect of any share solely or jointly held by him.

- 13.5. Any Person becoming entitled to a Listed Share in consequence of the death of a Member shall, upon producing such evidence of his title as the Exchange may from time to time require, have the right to be registered himself as the holder of the share or to make such transfer thereof as the deceased Member would have himself been entitled.
- 13.6. Any Person becoming entitled to an unlisted share in consequence of the death of a Member shall, upon producing such evidence of his title as the Directors may from time to time require, have the right to be registered himself as the holder of the share or to make such transfer thereof as the deceased Member would have himself been entitled.
- 13.7. In the case of unlisted shares, if a Person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another Person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that Person a transfer of the share. All the provisions relating to the transfer of shares in these Articles shall be applicable to such transfer.
- 13.8. A Person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other rights and advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not before being registered as a Member in respect of the share be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by Membership in relation to meetings of the Company;
- PROVIDED that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such Person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety (90) days, the Directors may thereafter withhold payments of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

14. FORFEITURE OF SHARES

- 14.1 If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any call or part thereof remains unpaid, require payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interests which may have accrued, by means of a notice which shall also name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen (14) days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before, the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to forfeiture.
- 14.2 If the requirements of such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. The Member shall however retain the right to all dividends declared before the call was made and which have not been paid, as well as the right to dividends declared after the call but before the date of forfeiture in which latter case however, his right shall only extend proportionately up to the amount actually paid by him. This without prejudice to any subtraction, from such dividend/s due to him, of all sums of money payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to shares of the Company as provided in these Articles.
- 14.3 A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and the Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer in favour of the Person to whom the share is sold or disposed of, who shall thereupon be registered as a holder of the share. At any time before a sale or disposal, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors may deem fit;

PROVIDED that while forfeited shares remain with, or under the control of, the Company, they shall be held subject to the provisions of Section 109 of the Act.

- 14.4 A Person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all the monies which, at the date of the forfeiture were due and payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares. His liability shall however cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.
- 14.5 The Directors may accept the surrender of any share which they are entitled to cause to be forfeited in terms of these Articles. The same consequences shall flow from the surrender of such share as if the Directors had passed a resolution for the forfeiture thereof in terms of Article 14.2. In particular, any share so surrendered may be sold or disposed of as a forfeited share.

15. CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

- 15.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and re-convert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination, PROVIDED that in the case of Listed Shares it shall comply with the Bye-Laws of the Exchange and the Capital Markets Rules in making any such conversion or reconversion.
- 15.2 The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances permit; and the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
- 15.3 The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets upon a winding up) shall be conferred by any amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares have conferred that privilege or advantage.
- 15.4 Such of the regulations of the Company as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "Member" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

- 18.3 The Directors may convene an extraordinary general meeting whenever they think fit. Extraordinary general meetings may also be convened on such requisition, or in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by the Act. If at any time there are not in Malta sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director, or any two Members of the Company, may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings may be convened by the Directors.
- 18.4 A general meeting of the Company shall be deemed not to have been duly convened unless at least twenty one (21) days' notice has been given in writing, to all those Members entitled to receive such notice. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it was given. The notice shall contain the information required by the Capital Markets Rules and/or any other applicable law in force from time to time and in case of extraordinary business, the general nature of the business, and shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect and scope of any proposed resolution in respect of such extraordinary business.

- 18.6 Notice of every general meeting shall be given by pre-paid mail to:
 - 18.6.1 every Member registered on the Record Date at their last known residential address, except those Members who, having no residential address in Malta, have not supplied the Company with an address in Malta for the giving of notices to them, and

Members that do not give their consent shall remain entitled to receive notices of general meetings of the Company by mail at their last known residential address.

- 18.9 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting, by any Person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of a meeting.
- 18.10 Without prejudice to sub-Article 18.11 below, any Member or Members holding not less than five per cent (5%) in nominal value of all the shares entitled to vote at the general meeting may:
- 18.10.1. request the Company to include items on the agenda of a general meeting, provided that each item is accompanied by a justification or a draft resolution proposed to be adopted at the general meeting; and

- 18.11 The request to include items on the agenda or the tabling of draft resolutions referred to in Article 18.10 above shall be submitted to the Company in hard copy or in an electronic form at least forty-six (46) days before the date set for the general meeting to which it relates and shall be authenticated by the Member or Members making it. The Company shall not be obliged to entertain any requests by Members received after the lapse of the forty six (46) day time limit set out above.
- 18.12 Where the right referred to Article 18.11 requires a modification of the agenda for the general meeting that has already been communicated to the Members, the Company shall make available a revised agenda in the same manner as the previous agenda in advance of the applicable Record Date, or if no such Record Date applies, sufficiently in advance of the date of the general meeting so as to enable other Members to appoint a proxy or, where applicable to vote by correspondence.
- 18.13 All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also that is transacted at an annual general meeting with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the reports of the Directors and the auditors, the election of Directors, the appointment of auditors and the fixing of remuneration of the Directors and the Auditors.
- 18.14 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present, in person or by proxy, at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided fifty (50) Members, entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, shall constitute a quorum.
- 18.15 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, a quorum is not present, the adjourned meeting may be convened by a shorter notice period than that required by Article 18.4 provided that:
- 18.15.1 the first meeting was duly convened in accordance with Article 18.4;
- 18.15.2 no new item is put on the agenda; and
- 18.15.3 the adjourned meeting is held at least ten (10) days after the final convocation is issued. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not yet present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the Members present shall constitute a quorum.
- 18.16 The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chairperson at every general meeting of the Company, or if there is no such Chairperson, or if he shall not be present within twenty (20) minutes from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number, to be Chairperson of the meeting.

- 18.17 If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as Chairperson or if no Director is present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the Members shall choose one of their number to be Chairperson of the meeting.
- 18.18 At the commencement of any general meeting, whether annual or extraordinary, the chairperson may lay down to the meeting the procedure which shall be adopted for the proceedings of that meeting. Such procedure shall be binding on the meeting.
- 18.19 Every Member represented in person or by proxy is entitled to ask questions which are pertinent and related to items on the agenda of a general meeting and to have such questions answered by the Directors or such persons as the Directors may delegate for that purpose subject to any reasonable measures that the Company may take to ensure the identification of the Member. The Company may provide one overall answer to questions having the same content.
- 18.20 No answer is required to be given by the Company where:
- 18.20.1 to give an answer would interfere unduly with the preparation for the meeting, involve the disclosure of confidential information or cause prejudice to the business interests of the Company;
 - 18.20.2 the answer has already been given on the Company's website in the form of an answer to a question;
 - 18.20.3 it is not in the interests of good order of the meeting that the question be answered; or
 - 18.20.4 the Company is unable to provide an immediate reply, provided that such reply is subsequently posted on the website of the Company.
- 18.21 The Chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unattended or unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- 18.22 If during the meeting an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the Chairperson of the meeting, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling. In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a special or extraordinary resolution, no amendment thereto (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted upon during the meeting. This Article shall be without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 18.10, 18.11 and 18.12.

19. VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 19.1 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote shall be determined and decided by a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded, before or on the declaration of the result of a show of hands, by:

- 19.1.1 the chairperson; or
 - 19.1.2 by at least three (3) Members present in person or by proxy; or
 - 19.1.3 any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting power of all Members having the right to vote at that meeting; or
 - 19.1.4 a Member or Members present in person or by proxy holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.
- 19.2 Unless a poll is demanded in accordance with the provisions of article 19.1 a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect is made in the minute book, it shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without need for the proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution;
- PROVIDED that where a resolution requires a particular majority in value, the resolution shall not be deemed to have been passed on a show of hands by the required majority unless there be present at that meeting, whether in person or by proxy, a number of Members holding in the aggregate the required majority as aforesaid.
- 19.3 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 19.4 The Company may provide that on a vote on a resolution on a poll taken at a meeting, the votes may include votes cast in advance.
- 19.5 Where a poll is taken at a general meeting and a request is made by a Member for a full account of the poll, the Company shall publish the following information on its website by not later than fifteen (15) days after the day of the general meeting at which the voting result is obtained:
- 19.5.1 the date of the meeting;
 - 19.5.2 the text of the resolution or, as the case may be, a description of the subject matter of the poll;
 - 19.5.3 the number of shares for which votes have been validly cast;
 - 19.5.4 the proportion of the Company's issued share capital at close of business on the day before the meeting represented by these votes;
 - 19.5.5 the total number of votes validly cast; and
 - 19.5.6 the number of votes cast in favour of and against each resolution and, if counted, the number of abstentions.
- 19.6 Where voting on a particular item or resolution is conducted by show of hands and a Member requests a full account of the voting at a general meeting, it shall be sufficient for the chairperson of the meeting to publish in the manner referred to in Article 19.4 a statement indicating:
- 19.6.1 the total number of Members entitled to vote present at the meeting;

- 19.6.2 that upon a show of hands at the meeting it appeared that the resolution had been either carried or rejected.
- 19.7 Where no Member requests a full account of the voting at a general meeting, it shall be sufficient for the Company to establish the voting results only to the extent necessary to ensure that the required majority is reached for each resolution.
- 19.8 Except as provided in Article 19.10 if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairperson directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 19.9 In the case of equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- 19.10 A poll demanded on the election of the chairperson or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairperson of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.
- 19.11 Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote independently of the number of shares held or represented, and on a poll every Member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder, and a proxy shall have one vote for each share for which he holds a valid proxy.
- 19.12 Any Person acting as a proxy holder may hold a proxy from more than one Member without limitation as to the number of Members so represented. Where a Person acting as a proxy holder holds proxies from several Members, the proxy may cast votes for a certain Member differently from votes cast for another Member. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 19.11, in the case of voting by a show of hands, a proxy who has been mandated by several Members and instructed to vote by some Members in favour of a resolution and by others against the same resolution, shall have one vote for and one vote against the resolution.
