Data Protection

In terms of the Data Protection Act (Chapter 440 of the Laws of Malta), the Bank will process the above data and any other data which you subsequently give to the Bank in any manner, for the following purposes, namely :

- To give you statements and provide its products and services;
- For internal assessment and analysis (including credit and/or behaviour scoring, market and product analysis);
- For the detection and prevention of fraud and other criminal activity which the Bank is bound to report;
- To develop and improve the Bank's products and services;
- For direct marketing, such as to inform you, by mail, telephone, fax, e-mail or other electronic means, about other products and services supplied by the Bank, its subsidiaries, associates, agents and by other carefully selected third parties, and for research purposes.

Please note that your personal data may be disclosed to or exchanged with all employees of the Bank, its subsidiaries, associates and agents, including third parties entrusted with handling bulk mail, for the above purposes only.

Personal data in relation to transactions effected via SWIFT (Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunications) may be required to be disclosed to the United States authorities in order to comply with legal requirements applicable in the United States for the prevention of crime.

You have the right to request the Bank to inform you about the personal data held about you that is processed and to request its correction where necessary. Furthermore, please inform us in writing if you do not wish that we process your personal data for the purpose of direct marketing.

Whilst the Bank may periodically request you to re-confirm the above data, you should inform the Bank immediately if such data has changed.
