General Product Information

The BOV Visa Classic Card is the card for your everyday purchasing needs. It is the ideal choice if you need a card that you can use as easily when you are travelling abroad as when you are at home.

Using a credit card is easy! When effecting a purchase from a retail outlet, the cashier at the outlet will insert the value of the transaction at the point of sale terminal, and this is displayed on the terminal display. Once you have confirmed that the value of the transaction is correct, you may insert your PIN (Personal Identification Number) to authorise the transaction. Contactless transactions under the value of €50 will be authorised by simply tapping your card on the machine, however if the value of the transaction exceeds the amount mentioned above, or after a certain number of transactions, you will be asked to insert your PIN to authorise the transaction. That's all there is to it!

Credit Limit

Every cardholder is given a minimum credit limit of €700. However a higher limit may be requested at any time by the cardholder. Furthermore, arrangements can be made for a higher limit to be available for a short-term period, usually to cover a trip abroad.

If a supplementary card is issued, the same limit applies to the combined spending on both cards. The first supplementary card is issued for free.

Benefits

The BOV Visa Classic Card is accepted at retail outlets the world over. You can pay for the products and services in shops, restaurants, hotels, travel agents and airline offices, to mention a few, that display the credit card logos.

- 1) Instant Cash – You can use your BOV credit cards to withdraw cash at banks and cash machines (ATMs) all over the world. The amount you withdraw will appear in your monthly statement. There is a small charge for this and interest will be charged from the date of withdrawal. All you need is a Personal Identification Number (PIN), which is automatically supplied with the card.
- 2) Convenience – You do not need to write cheques or carry large amounts of cash. You can also use your card to pay for mail order shopping and for things you order through the phone or the Internet.
- 3) Flexibility and control – Using a credit card can help you control your finances and spread your spending over time. In this way you can pay for expensive items without disrupting your normal budget.

Free Purchase Protection Insurance

Visa Classic cardholders purchasing goods in Malta and abroad and paying for the full value of the items with their card will benefit from a free Purchase Protection Insurance Policy that safeguards their interests on certain purchases. The Period of Cover is 90 days for both Local and Overseas Purchases.  - e) Should you retrieve the Card after you have reported it lost or stolen, you must not use it but forward it to us cut in half.

In line with Directive No. 14 issued by the Central Bank of Malta relating to the establishment of a new Central Credit Register, information related to all your credit facilities in excess of €5,000 (if any) will be made available to the Central Bank for inclusion in this Register. In terms of this Directive, all banks in Malta are legally obliged to provide to the Central Bank all the necessary information on a monthly basis.

The credit facilities reportable for the purposes of this Register include loans, overdrafts, commitments, credit cards and other credit lines which are deemed to represent a credit exposure.

Access to the Register, which will be operated through a fully auditable system on the CBM portal, will be strictly limited to banks, and credit rating agencies, in Malta, whilst customers themselves, or their lawful representatives, may also request to exercise the right to have an extract of the information held on them on the Register.

12. Application of Payments

When payments are received and credited to the Account, outstanding amounts are settled as follows:

- a) overdue amounts (any unpaid minimum repayment amounts);
- b) billed amounts (that is, transactions which have already featured in a previous statement); and
- c) unbilled amounts (that is, transactions which will feature in the next statement).

In turn, each of the above mentioned outstanding amounts will be settled as follows:

- a) interest;
- b) fees;
- c) amounts representing cash advances; and
- d) amounts representing purchases.

13. Supplementary Card

Upon satisfactory completion of our application form by the Account Holder and the Supplementary Cardholder, we may issue a Supplementary Card. The Account Holder will be liable to us for the use of such a Supplementary Card as if he were the Supplementary Cardholder and it is the responsibility of the Account Holder to ensure that the Supplementary Cardholder is aware of and complies with these Terms and Conditions. This means that the Account Holder is responsible for making payment to the Bank in respect of the use of any Supplementary Card. Accordingly, references in these Terms and Conditions to your Card or Cards will include any Supplementary Cards issued unless we have indicated otherwise. Any Supplementary Cardholder has no right to enforce any of these Terms and Conditions. We may cancel a Supplementary Card at the written request of the Account Holder or Supplementary Cardholder and upon the surrender of the Card to the Bank. If a Supplementary Card is issued, the same credit limit applies to both Cards as one Account.

14. Retailers

- a. We will have no liability for the refusal of a retailer or bank to accept the Card.
- b. We cannot cancel a payment made using your Card once you have given consent to make the payment to a retailer or supplier or provided your PIN and/or Card/Security Details and enabled the processing of the payment. You will need to contact the retailer or supplier separately. This includes payments made on a regular basis (recurring transactions) from your Account, such as television or magazine subscriptions.

If you have subscribed to the 'automatic account updating service' in respect of recurring transactions, you would have authorised the Bank to communicate the updated card details to the relative card scheme to be stored securely. Following this, retailers or suppliers with whom you have enrolled your card, and who have been registered, and authorised, by the card schemes, may request the relevant card scheme to provide them with your updated card information to update their records and enable the uninterrupted provision of service.

Should you wish to avail yourself of the automatic account updating service you may do so via the BOV Internet Banking service (accessible through the bank's website www.bov.com), by visiting your nearest BOV branch, or by placing a claim in writing to The Manager, Electronic Business Unit, BOV Centre, Triq il-Kanun,

Zone 4, Central Business District, Santa Venera CBD 4060. You can opt out of this service at any time in the same manner.

 - iii. the amount that has been requested was more than you could reasonably have expected to pay for the Direct Debit mandate or subscription, based on the circumstances, including your previous spending patterns; and
 - iv. you request a refund within eight (8) weeks of the date the payment was made from your Account
 - e. We may ask you to provide information which is reasonably necessary to investigate whether or not you are entitled to the refund. In addition, you may also find it helpful to contact the person you paid using the Card. Within 10 working days of receiving your request (or of receiving further information we have asked for), we will either refund the payment or we will inform you of our reasons for refusing the refund.
 - f. If you query the payment made more than eight (8) weeks after it was taken from your account or the payment was made to a retailer or supplier outside the EEA, we are not obliged to make a refund ourselves but we will tell you if we can help or suggest other steps that you could take.
 - g. As part of our decision-making process and in an effort to minimize the misuse of cards, we may refer an authorisation request back to the retailer for further information. This may result in you being asked to produce further means of identification. This may also be affected on a random basis for fraud prevention purposes.
 - h. If you are in dispute with or have a claim against a retailer, supplier or bank over a transaction made with your Card, you must still pay us all sums unrelated to the dispute. We may give you time to resolve any claim or dispute but may still require payment in accordance with this agreement.

 - c) If the Cardholder's top-up request has been processed, the top-up will be confirmed to the Cardholder by a receipt issued by the ATM. The receipt will also constitute a receipt for fiscal purposes. In the event that the Cardholder's top-up request has not been processed for any reason whatsoever, the Cardholder will be notified that the request has not been processed. ¹ Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit

Your deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your credit institution should occur, your deposits would in any case be repaid up to €100,000.

² General limit of protection

If a deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the Depositor Compensation Scheme, in accordance with the regulations. This repayment covers a maximum of €100,000 per credit institution. This means that all deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with €90,000 and a current account with €20,000, he or she will only be repaid €100,000.

In addition to the protection described above, deposits may be protected in some cases up to a maximum of €500,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such deposits become legally transferable. In order to qualify for such higher protection, a deposit in excess of €100,000 must meet any one of the following additional criteria:

(A) it comprises:

- a) monies deposited in preparation for the purchase of a private residential property by the depositor; or
- b) monies which represent the proceeds of sale of a private residential property of the depositor; or

(B) it comprises sums paid to the depositor in respect of:

- a) a separation, divorce or dissolution of their civil union; or
- b) benefits payable on retirement; or
- c) a claim for compensation for unfair dismissal; or
- d) a claim for compensation for redundancy; or
- e) benefits payable for death or bodily injury; or
- f) a claim for compensation for wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under www.compensationschemes.org.mt

³ Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of €100,000 applies to each depositor.

However, deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of €100,000.

⁴ Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Depositor Compensation Scheme, c/o Malta Financial Services Authority, Triq Notabile, #Attard BKR 3000 - Malta; Tel: 2144 1155; E-mail: info@compensationschemes.org.mt. It will repay your deposits up to €100,000 within 20 working days until 31 December 2018; within 15 working days from 1 January 2019 until 31 December 2020; within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 until 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards.

As of 31 May 2016, where the Depositor Compensation Scheme cannot make the repayable amount(s) available within 7 working days, depositors shall have access to an amount, not exceeding €1,500, to cover the cost of living, within 5 working days of a request. The Depositor Compensation Scheme shall only grant access to such amount within 5 working days on the basis of data provided by the credit institution.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should make contact with the Depositor Compensation Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained from www.compensationschemes.org.mt.

28. Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by the Depositor Compensation Scheme. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the Depositor Compensation Scheme. Your credit institution will also inform you on request whether certain products are covered or not. If deposits are covered, the credit institution shall also confirm this on the statement of account.
